

PEACE AND CONFLICT IN IRISH SOCIETY, NORTH AND SOUTH

ABOUT THE CERTIFICATE

This 20 credit certificate provides an opportunity for visiting students to study social justice, peace and conflict, in both theory and practice, in the context of Irish society, North and South. Combining a range of classroom learning strategies with field visits and individual projects, the certificate provides students with a comprehensive overview of key aspects of social justice in Ireland and associated activities at both institutional and community levels.

OBJECTIVES

- Understanding of the nature and impact of conflict in society
- Components of historical, political and other divisions which sustain conflict in a divided society
- Awareness of the historical and contemporary context of peace and conflict in Ireland
- Key concepts and themes such as justice, equality and human rights
- Knowledge of the roles of those involved in peace and development work
- Key issues impacting on peace and conflict in communities both urban and rural

KEY DATES

Integrated Introduction: Sep 19th 2017
Study visit to Dublin (The Dail, The Courts): Oct 24th
Study visit to Belfast: Nov 9th & 10th (overnight)
Study visit to Dublin: Nov 21st

PEACE AND CONFLICT IN IRISH SOCIETY, NORTH AND SOUTH

MODULES - CONTENT

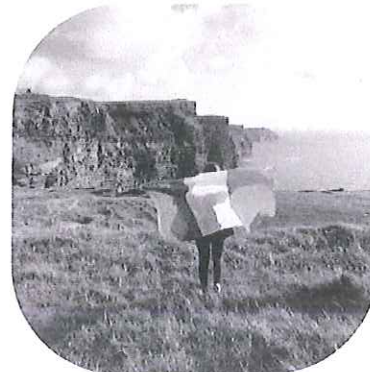

SPO01: SOCIAL JUSTICE POLICY AND SPO02: SOCIAL JUSTICE PRACTICE

- Introduction: contexts in Irish society North and South and how this impacts on understanding peace and conflict
- Structures and Institutions in Northern Ireland and Ireland
- EU, Council of Europe and international institutions
- Difference and diversity: culture, ethnicity, interculturalism

MC 102: UNDERSTANDING CONFLICT: THE IRISH EXPERIENCE

- Introduction: genesis of the Northern Ireland problem
- analysis of the nature of the Northern Ireland crisis
- Exogenous factors and international actors
- Residue of conflict: dealing with the past
- Northern Ireland as an example of dealing with intractable conflict

SPO03: RESEARCH PROJECT

- Self-study Project support/supervision
- Project planning and development
- Research & inquiry skills

More information:

<http://www.nuim.ie/applied-social-studies>

<http://kennedyinstitute.nuim.ie/>